SIR,

With reference to the property indicated by plan No 21 and Municipal No.1022 in the Uttaraji Matt Street, --- Block No 72, Old Agrahar, Mysore, I have the honour to state that a part of it was proposed to be acquired, by the Improve-ment Sub Committee, for opening a lane to the south, but since cases of plague occurred in it every year, the Board found it undesirable to leave the remaining portion for dwell-ing purposes, and accordingly resolved in their meeting -- dated the 28th April 1909 that the whole of that house be acquired A copy of their resolution in the matter is enclosed The owner L Seshagiri Rao, Assistant Master, Narimallanna's High School, has consented to part with the whole property

2. I therefore solicit the sanction of Government, a
